

Boost your bottom line with Stockline

Stockline is a flexible form of finance which gives you fast access to funds. This means you can negotiate better discounts with suppliers because you are able to pay in advance and in full.

Stockline is Bank of Ireland's answer to providing a revolving working capital facility specifically for the purchase of stock.

- It's flexible – credit period available up to 180 days
- It's innovative – unlike traditional loan or overdraft facilities, it usually requires no security
- It's complimentary – works alongside existing Bank of Ireland working capital facilities
- It's available to you – provided you have either an Invoice Discounting or Full Service facility with Bank of Ireland

With Stockline you can:

- Pre-plan your funding of stock - ideal for times of seasonal peak requirements
- Negotiate bulk order discounts
- Negotiate discounts for early payment
- Enhance your reputation with suppliers
- Buy additional stock, which may include new product lines
- Offer more attractive terms to your customers

Who can use Stockline?

Your business is likely to be:

- Growth oriented with a minimum of 2-3 years trading experience
- Selling annually in excess of £350,000

How does this work?

- We pay your supplier's invoice upon your written instruction
- In return, you give us a Bill of Exchange, which we present for payment after the pre-agreed credit period of up to 180 days
